FORCE WHICH CROSSED DANUBE PRACTICALLY WIPED OUT, IS CLAIMED

(BULLETIN)

Berlin, October 5.—(Via London).—The Rumanians are retreating in Transylvania, in the region of Bekokten, north of Fogaras, and also on both sides of the Strell Valley, in the vicinity of Hatzeg, the war office announced today.

London, Oct. 5.—The bold invasion of Bulgaria by Rumanian troops which crossed the Danube near Rahovo in the rear of the main battle line in Dobrudja has ended most disastrously for the invaders according to Sofia, their force being scattered and virtually wiped out.

To combat the Rumanians, who apparently were from 12,000 to 16,000 strong, but declared to be without artillery, the Bulgarians sent troops from Ruzhichuk and Turtukal, on either side of the point of crossing. Caught between the two forces, the Rumanians are said to have made for the pontoon bridge which they found destroyed by Austrian monitors.

Berlin's official announcement says that the invading force broke in disorder and that yesterday the Bulgarians were engaged in completing its destruction.

Regarding the operations along the Dobrudja front south of Telerna Voda-Constanza Railway, the current Sofia statement reports the repulse of all Russian and Rumanian attempts to advance. Bucharest has claimed substantial progress with these attacks near the center and toward the Black Sea coast and yesterday reported the capture of more than 1,000 prisoners and seven guns from Field Marshal Von Mackensen's forces.

On the western end of the Macedonian front the Serbians are pressing northward toward Monastir, fighting on Serbian soil to the southeast and close to the border further westward. In this latter region they have reached the town of Bui, 12 miles below Monastir, according to Paris today, while around the head of the Cerina they apparently are still nearer the objective.

The current Bulgarian official statement deals with the situation in the Monastir district only in a general way, but declares the Serbians along the line to the east were foiled in attempts to advance in the Moglenia Valley near Strupino. A repulse for the British beyond the Struma on the eastern flank of the battle front also is reported.

Bulgars Halt Entente Advance
Sofia, Oct. 4.—(Via London, Oct. 5).—Bulgarian troops have been successful in halting attempted advances of entente forces in several sectors of the Macedonian front, the war office announced today. The official statement says: "Macedonian front.—Between Prespa Lake and the Vardar there has been lively artillery and (Continued On Page Eight)

THOUSANDS GREET WILSON IN WEST

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 5.—President Wilson came to Omaha today for one of the busiest days of his career. Arriving here shortly before noon, after greeting several thousand people in the town he passed through, he went immediately to the Commercial Club for his first middle western speech since the campaign opened. Later his program called for two more speeches and participation in a parade symbolizing Nebraska's history.

A cheering crowd of thousands of people gathered from all parts of Nebraska and neighboring states greeted the president on his arrival and continued the applause as he proceeded through the streets in an automobile. A non-partisan committee officially welcomed the president and Mrs. Wilson to Omaha.

Because of the Ak Sar Ben celebration of Nebraska's admission to statehood, Omaha was in gala attire. Flags decorated the buildings and bands of music played almost constantly. The president immediately entered into the spirit of the occasion. Bands of Indians and cowboys were here to participate in the parade. It was estimated fully 100,000 people lined the streets. President Wilson crossing Iowa on his way to Omaha, early today told a crowd at Missouri Valley that he appreciated greatly the reception given him in the middle west.

The president was up early this morning and with Mrs. Wilson appeared on the train platform at Carroll and Denison, Iowa. At each place he thanked the crowds for coming out to see him.

When the crowd applauded Mrs. Wilson, the president said: "I think she could be elected easily."

At Denison a crowd of school children welcomed Mr. and Mrs. Wilson. "Isn't school in yet?" the president asked. "It's out," replied a little girl, "because somebody is in town." The president threw back his head and laughed. The president told a large crowd at Council Bluffs today he wished the women could vote. Appearing on the rear platform of his private car enroute to Omaha, he was greeted with shouts: "We are going to vote for you—everybody."

BANK CALL

Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—State Superintendent of Banks Harry T. Hall today issued a call for examination of condition of Ohio banks up to September 30, 1916.

REGISTER TODAY

Columbus, Ohio, Oct. 5.—Thursday is the first registration day for the November election in cities of 11,800 and over. It is the quadrennial registration for cities with populations between 11,800 and 100,000. Political organizations have made no special effort to get out the vote today and the registration for the first day is not expected to be heavy. There are three more days left for registration, Thursday, October 12 and Friday and Saturday, October 20 and 21.

SLAYS MAN SHE CLAIMS WRONGED HER, KILLS SELF

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 5.—Alphonso Wetterer, 49 years old, vice president and secretary of the Wetterer Brewing Company, of this city, who, it is believed, was shot by Helen Houck, 30 years old at the latter's home in Walnut Hills, last night, died at the city's general hospital early today. Miss Houck was found dead with a bullet hole through her right temple in the same room where Wetterer was found with two bullet wounds in his head. No one witnessed the shooting, but Miss Houck left a note addressed to her sister, Ruth Houck, which the police and Coroner Fourmeyer said indicated that she shot Wetterer and then herself.

The note left by Helen Houck stated that she had been keeping company with Wetterer for several months and charged that he had wronged her.

Helen Houck was the divorced wife of William R. Houck, formerly of Norwood, a suburb of Cincinnati, but now residing in Colorado.

Has Voted For 7 Republican Presidents; To Support Wilson

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 5.—Albert Krell, president of the Krell Piano Company, who has voted for seven consecutive Republican candidates for president has announced he would vote for Woodrow Wilson.

"My sympathies are with Germany," said Krell.

"My people on both sides came from Germany."

"I am for Woodrow Wilson for president because I do not believe we should make a change in this critical period."

"I am for him because, even under the greatest pressure, he saved us from taking a hand in the war on the allies' side."

"I am for him because he has been a wonderful president. Intellectually he is bigger than any president since Lincoln."

"I am for him because he has made possible the enactment of a great program of legislation beneficial to the people."

"I am for him because he prevented the railroad strike which would have created the greatest industrial calamity in our history."

"I know many other German-Americans who feel as I do about the presidential situation."

Close followers of the team, claiming no authority for their statement, predicted today that Carrigan himself would catch the opening game, with Leonard as the pitcher.

Allotment of the 27,000 reserved seat tickets was finished early today with probably more than 1,000 applications unanswered.

The available reservations were over-subscribed so greatly that many persons who asked for a modest pair of seats, were allowed but one, while others asking six and eight, in some instances obtained only a pair. To receive their tickets, applicants besieged the club offices today and with the announcement of last night that reservations were not specific, but applied only to the number of seats allowed, with early comers getting preference of location, the grand stand ticket lines resembled a bleacher rush.

This desire to be on the grounds early was reflected today in the arrivals at hotels of hundreds of visitors, some of whom at least had come ahead of time hoping to get the pick of seats. Hotel men reported early indications of a tremendous business, requests for reservations having taxed the capacity in several instances to the point where cots were ordered installed. The extent of the appeal of the world's series as an event as widespread in interest as the name implies, was shown by requests to club and press officials. Many persons had sent inquiries from the battle front in France some weeks ago, from the Canadian Northwest by telegraph within the past week and from Mexico. The committee in charge of press arrangements, announced a greater demand for newspaper reservations than ever before and said that applications had come from Canada and Panama.

Willis Takes Issue With Cox On Handling Saloons

Alliance, Ohio, Oct. 5.—Governor Frank B. Willis took direct issue here last night with his opponent, James M. Cox, upon the question of the handling of saloons in Ohio during the present administration and that of Ex-Governor Cox. "It is a matter of common knowledge throughout Ohio that during the term of my opponent the granting of saloon licenses was deferred until the very last moment before the election as a part of the scheme to build up a gigantic political machine in this state," said Governor Willis. "This administration is enforcing the rule that saloon licenses shall be granted at an early date before elections so that there shall be no suspicion that the license granting power is being used as a club to hold saloon-keepers in line."

Governor Willis was greeted by a large crowd at the Columbia theatre, including visiting delegations from Canton, Massillon and Salem. Before the meeting the famous McKinley club of Canton, with the Grand Army band, led a torch-light procession. The governor was the guest of honor during the day. Wednesday, at the opening of the industrial exposition at Massillon, he was entertained at luncheon by the Chamber of Commerce, led and reviewed a procession three miles long and delivered a non-partisan address in the afternoon from the main exposition building. All the shops, stores and schools of Massillon were closed in honor of the occasion, which brought out a crowd of many thousands from all parts of Stark county.

50 PERCENT OF EMPLOYEES GET LESS THAN $15 PER WEEK

DEMAND EXCEEDS SUPPLY OF SEATS FOR WORLD'S SERIES

PREDICTS FAIR WEATHER

Boston, Mass., Oct. 5.—Fair weather will prevail on Saturday for the opening game of the World Series here, in the opinion of John W. Smith, head of the local weather bureau.

"All indications today," he said, "are that weather conditions will be fair. Temperatures will be reasonable and winds moderate from the west. The outlook could not be better."

Boston, Oct. 5.—Although the first game of the world series to be played in this city is two days away, virtually every element in the local end of that event was in readiness today.

The world champions, Boston-Americans, marking time from the end of the season which brought them another pennant to the hour when they meet the Brooklyn Nationals on Saturday in defense of greater base ball honors, divided forces. One group headed by Captain Jack Barry, went to Worcester to oppose the Philadelphia-Americans in a game arranged to assist a memorial fund for the old-time manager, John H. Gaffney. Others of the team went again to Braves Field, where the local games will be played for light practice.

Manager Carrigan, who was with the latter group, said that "the boys are in good shape except for Foster and Barry."

"Whether either or both would be able to take an active part in the series was still uncertain," he said.

Close followers of the team, claiming no authority for their statement, predicted today that Carrigan himself would catch the opening game, with Leonard as the pitcher.

Allotment of the 27,000 reserved seat tickets was finished early today with probably more than 1,000 applications unanswered.

Formal announcement of the selections of all three members will be made tonight.

George Rublee, of New Hampshire, member of the Federal Trade Commission, has been selected as the third member of the board.

STOLE BALLOT BOX

Huntington, W. Va., Oct. 5.—L. V. S. Curry, a commissioner at the voting place in Rook House precinct, Mingo county, in the congressional election of 1914, related how two masked men entered the voting place just after the polls had closed and covering the election officials with revolvers, made off with the ballot box and poll books.

FIRE SWEEPS VILLAGE; 200 ARE HOMELESS

Mendon, Michigan, Oct. 5.—The village of Mendon was virtually destroyed by fire yesterday. The blaze, starting in the afternoon, swept 39 business buildings and residences and burned itself out last night. The loss was about $250,000, partly covered by insurance. There were no casualties, but several hundred persons were without homes or extra clothing today.

Mendon has a population of about 1,000 and is 21 miles from Kalamazoo.

PROHIBITIONISTS CHALLENGE WILSON

Sioux Falls, S. D., Oct. 5.—Receptions by South Dakota citizens yesterday sent the Prohibition National Campaigners back into their work in this state today with renewed vigor. The meeting here, last night was one of the largest of the entire tour. Three South Dakota cities and five Iowa cities are on today's schedule, the campaigners planning to continue firing questions at President Wilson, who will be in Omaha tonight regarding his stand on Prohibition.

POLICE ARE CALLED TO DISPERSE CROWDS

New York, Oct. 5.—The first disorder growing out of the milk situation took place here early today when it was necessary to call police reserves to disperse more than 500 women, mostly foreigners, many with babies in arms, who stormed two health department milk stations in Harlem.

The women had previously canvassed stores in the neighborhood in search of milk for their children and finding none for sale they gathered at the city stations. A few were admitted. Those on the outside fearing that the supply would be exhausted before they could be served, crashed the doors of the building.

Officers in charge of the stations said that their supply today was less than half of that received yesterday.

The Borden Condensed Milk Co., which supplies one-fifth of all the milk sold in this city, announced today that it would meet the demand of the Dairymen's League for an increase in the price paid to farmers of 45 cents per hundred pounds.

New York, Oct. 5.—Efforts to compromise the controversy between the milk producers and the city distributors having failed, consumers today pinned their hopes upon the state investigation which is to begin before a referee here tomorrow.

From up state counties and New Jersey came news of more rioting and raids by farmers upon the milk stations and wagons. Masked night riders again held up and dumped milk in transport to railroad stations. The farmers said hundreds of new members were joining the league and that their position was stronger than ever.

SELLS STEEL BARGES

Pittsburgh, Pa., Oct. 6.—The American Steel and Wire Company today completed a deal for $200,000 by which its entire fleet of steel river barges were sold to the Aluminum Company of America for use at its St. Louis plant. The barges, each 230 feet long, were too large for the wire company's needs and will be replaced by 75 smaller boats.

WITH THE SICK

Friends of Andrew Glass, vice president of the Whitaker-Glessner Company will regret to learn that he has developed typhoid fever at his home, 837 Second street. He had been ill with a gripe for a week and his illness was not pronounced typhoid fever until today. His temperature today was 102.4-10, according to his physician, Dr. H. A. Schirrmann.

Adam Pfau, Edward Knittel and Al Adams, three local bakers, have returned from Columbus, where they attended a meeting of the leading bakers of Ohio. They were well entertained but practically all their time was taken up in the various sessions in a discussion of the big problems that are confronting the bakers these days, as a result of the high cost of material.

They claim that flour has raised 100 per cent in price; rye 124 per cent, sugar 66 per cent, salt 14 per cent, labor 25 per cent, wrapping paper 90 per cent and delivery cost 20 per cent. Taken as a whole they say that the cost in the production of bread has increased nearly 60 per cent and the report at the meeting was that many bakers had been forced to close up their shops.

The local bakers say that the elimination of waste, incident to the manufacture of five cent loaves of bread is the keynote of the solution of offering the consumer the greatest amount of bread for the price.

The local bakers claim that as much labor is required for the production of a five cent loaf as in a ten cent loaf and they further claim that their only salvation during the high cost of material is that the people insist on ten cent loaves. They claim the ten cent loaf is of a better flavor and texture and will retain its moisture longer. In order to induce the people to purchase ten cent loaves the bakers will recall the former price of twelve cents for wrapped bread and make the price ten cents. The loaf will be of the same high quality as before the raise, although it will probably be reduced an ounce or so in weight. The bakers, however, will continue to make 5 cent and 6 cent loaves.

Athletic Association Formed By Students

After several weeks' careful planning promoters of athletics in the Portsmouth High school succeeded in forming the P. H. S. Athletic Association Wednesday afternoon by electing a full staff of officers.

The present 300 members of the Association are working to enroll 500 more students in the organization, which will place the football eleven on "Easy street" for the season. Each member is charged a certain fee, or dues, and with 500 members in the order the amount will be large enough to pay the expense of the football team for the season.

Another aim of the organization is to increase the school spirit in the high school body, the students having fallen down in their attendance at the games. When the dues are paid the member is furnished with a season ticket to the football games. This will insure a crowd of over 300 at each game.

The Association will also get behind the other high school sports and will instill more enthusiasm in the student body.

Alice Brady in "Miss Petticoats"
At Lyric Tomorrow
"Miss Petticoats," from the book by Dwight Tilton, has been adapted to the screen by Harley Knoles, who also directed the play, and supported by a company of genuine players of merit, Alice Brady plays the leading role in a manner altogether pleasing and charming, at the same time giving the characters such a great impersonation as to make even her closest admirers gaze on in wonder. The many scenes requiring a sea or mill scene were filmed in the requisite locale, the old fishing schooner, the Chas. W. Morgan of New Bedford, Mass., as well as the Wamsutta Mills being utilized in the production of this World Film feature which will be shown on the screen at the Lyric theatre tomorrow.

At The Exhibit
Today is shown another chapter of that nation-wide interest Pathé serial, "The Grip of Evil," based on that great and important question, "Is Humanity in the Grip of Evil?" Today's episode is entitled, "The Hypocrites." This serial is living up to the standard set by "The Iron Claw" serial. It is founded on a theme suggested by the nation's leaders, senators, governors, etc. The chapter today contains more exciting and thrilling scenes that hold you spell-bound. Jackie Saunders and Roland Bottomley in the leading roles are seen to a good advantage in this serial. "Start seeing it today if you have not already begun." A Helene and Louis comedy and a "Lonesome Luke" comedy complete the program. Friday will be shown "The Kilted Hand," part two of "The Yellow Menace" sensational serial.

Feature Night At Arcana Tonight
Another big treat for Arcana Theater patrons tonight is what Manager Potts has in store for the theater-going public. A program unexcelled from every viewpoint, just enough variety to add spice to the occasion. First and foremost will be a Nestor, entitled, "What Darwin Missed," a comedy number by Beverly Griffith, featuring Victor Pote as a professor who specializes in animal studies. He dreams he is in an African jungle, where he meets an elephant, an orang-outang, some alligators and other beasts. Real animals are employed in each instance. The plot is slight, but children will greatly enjoy the picture as well as the grown-ups. "The Speed King," a two-reel Imp drama, is a cracker-jack, while "The Animated Weekly" is one of the best of the many. Don't let anything keep you away from the Arcana tonight—it's a great show. And only five cents, too.

Crowds Upon Crowds At The Temple Theatre

Never before in the history of the Temple theatre have such splendid crowds been in attendance as has marked the business of the East End picture house this week. This is due in a large measure to the fact that Manager Potts has reduced the price of admission to straight five cents for everybody, coupled with the elevation of the standard of shows. For five cents one may now see at the Temple the best in the movie world—all the high-class features, best of serials and no film is shown but is recognized from the standpoint of merit. The pretty little house was packed to the doors at every performance last night, and those who were present enjoyed

THEATRICAL

The Sun

The big attraction at the Sun theatre this week is Jackson's Revue Girls of Today, and this meritorious company continues to draw big crowds. A new bill is being presented tonight, different from the one shown the first part of the week, and on Friday and Saturday another change of program will occur. Don't forget the popular ladies' and children's matinee every afternoon at 2:30.

Arrangements are being made by Mr. Fred Hilton, local manager of The Sun theatre, and H. V. Winslow, representing The Earle Stock Co. to present this popular organization to Portsmouth theatre-goers for a week's engagement only. This company is presenting a repertoire of standard plays and comes highly recommended by press and public. It has been quite awhile since Portsmouth has had a repertoire company, and in looking the Earle company it will no doubt arouse the attention of the theatre-going public. The week's engagement will be a most notable event in theatrical annals.

IT NEVER FAILS TO END MISERY OF PILES

"Hundreds of people in this vicinity," says Peterson, "know of the mighty healing power of PETERSON'S OINTMENT in eczema, salt rheum, old sores, itching skin and ulcers. They know it cures these ailments—that it is guaranteed to cure them."

Now I want to say to every sufferer from piles, either blood, bleeding or itching, that I will guarantee that a 25-cent box of PETERSON'S OINTMENT will rid you of piles or your druggist will return your money."

"For years I suffered terrible with itching and bleeding piles. I tried everything and despaired of ever getting rid of them. It gives me great pleasure to state that Peterson's Ointment entirely cured me and I sincerely recommend it to all sufferers." Yours truly, David A. Seymour, Supt. of Parks, Buffalo, N. Y. the splendid program from beginning to end. Manager Potts is putting to use the same methods that have made his Arcana Theatre so popular with movie patrons. For tonight the Temple has four distinct features—four headline attractions. First and foremost will be a two-reel drama, entitled, "The Tiger Unchained," a powerful drama that is chock full of excitement and thrills. This will be followed by a comic, "No Place Like Jail," a play that will please. "Jane's Husband" is the title of an exciting play, while the big program will come to a close with the rendition of "Stenographic Strategy," a comic that will set all patrons to laughing. Shortage In Wheat, Oats, Rye, Corn And Potatoes In Ohio Says Crop Report

Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—The official crop report for Ohio issued by G. A. Stauffer, secretary of the State Board of Agriculture today shows a shortage in the wheat, oats, rye, corn and potatoes for 1916.

The total estimated wheat crop is 18,904,678 bushels or 12 bushels to the acre as compared with a crop of 36,030,238 or 23 bushels to the acre last year. Severe cold winter and lack of snow is blamed for the falling off in the wheat crop. Much of it had to be ploughed up in the spring for other crops. Thirteen per cent of the crop is still in the hands of the farmers as compared with 9 per cent at this time last year.

Oats show a low production, due to extreme dry weather. The harvest is estimated at 42,090,019 bushels, which is 13,600,000 below the 1915 production. The average was 27 bushels to the acre as compared with 42 bushels to the acre in 1915.

The corn crop is estimated at 69 per cent of a full average product. Early planted corn in good soil resulted in a good crop but the late planting is light.

The potato crop is reported short in most parts of the state, due to unfavorable weather conditions at planting time, ravages of bugs and injury by drought.

Rye shows a decrease of 67,874 acres compared with 1915. The total estimated production for 1916 is 1,061,935 bushels, as against 2,218,358 bushels in 1915. Average production per acre was 16 bushels as compared with 15 bushels to the acre in 1915.

There was 11,887 more acres of barley sown in 1916 than the previous year but the production per acre was 28 bushels as compared with 30 bushels in 1915. The total production was 311,357 more than 1915, due to the increase in acreage. Farmers report considerable seeding yet to do, help scarce and wages advanced.

Pork Roast and Sweet Potatoes!

Yum! Yum! Yes sir, and prepared right before your eyes at our Aladdin Aluminum Ware demonstration which we have today moved from the third floor down to the center aisle on the first floor. Tomorrow (Friday) Miss Moore, the demonstrator from the factory, will show how to use the Aladdin Windsor Kettles. Here is one of the most practical utensils in the whole Aladdin line. Use it as you would a preserving kettle or a Berlin kettle. Besides, and best of all, use it as a roaster. For a "pot roast" on top of the stove, nothing equals it. Put your meat in without water, place kettle over a slow fire and see how beautiful and juicy will be your roast. The self-basting cover keeps it moist. Moreover it is browned uniformly all over because aluminum of all metals, heats most quickly and evenly.

Watch Miss Moore prepare a roast tomorrow in one of these kettles that come in three different sizes.

Aladdin Double Roaster A Whole Kitchen Outfit in Itself

This roaster is useful the year round—as handy for baking and canning as it is for frying and steaming. Makes a fine bread box and a very useful dip pan. The Aladdin Double Roaster is a whole kitchen outfit in itself. Moreover, you can use this roaster more times every day than a skillet—and it's made strong enough to use almost as hard. Come in and see, it demonstrated. Made in 3 sizes.

Wm. Van Gorder Store At Harrisonville Is Destroyed

Fire of unknown origin completely destroyed the William Van Gorder grocery store and pool room at Harrisonville about 9:30 Wednesday evening.

Van Gorder and several friends left the building about 8:30 and he was asleep when aroused by Miss Mary Porter, telephone exchange operator, her mother, Mrs. William Kirchner having discovered the flames shooting from the two story frame structure which was located on Main street of the village.

The fire had gained such headway that the interior of the building was a seething furnace when Van Gorder arrived and he was unable to save even his books. The building and contents were reduced to ashes.

Large crowds gathered and several bucket brigades were formed and they succeeded in saving adjoining property. The store was located between Stockham and Payne's grocery and a large barn owned by Wausser Riekey. All near buildings have tin roofs which saved them from catching fire. The chemical fire extinguisher was used with telling effect on Stockham and Payne's grocery building.

The building destroyed was

THE MARKETS

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Oct. 5.—Trading in today's market was again reached a total of in excess of one million shares and was more noteworthy for its wide scope than for any other feature.

Rails again assumed a commanding position at today's opening with further gains of 9 to 10 points, foremost issues including Louisville and Nashville, New York Central, Reading and Lehigh Valley in which individual dealings ranged from 1,000 to 2,500 shares.

Equipped, munitions and other specialties were also in speculative favors, Central Leather at the new record of 79 with substantial advances in airplane, Pressed Steel Car, Crucible Steel, Studebaker, and Westinghouse Paper issues.

Tobacco products, Barrett and company, and Beal Sugar represented the miscellaneous specialties at material gains. U. S. Steel was firm on relatively light trading.

Secondary rails, like Kansas City Southern, Seaboard and Toledo, St. Louis and Western preferred shares followed the leads of the high grade issues at gains of 1/2 to 3 points. Trading pursued its usual erratic course, however, shifting to steel and metals, the former advancing a point with 1 to 3 points for Anaconda, Inspiration and Kennecott Coppers ad National Lead. Mexicanos as a group also rose substantially. Central Leather made a new maximum at 80, Barrett extended its advance over 4 points and American Woolen led its specialties at a gain of over 3 points.

Bonds were firm with a new maximum at 80, Barrett extended its advance over 4 points and American Woolen led its specialties at a gain of over 3 points.

Studebaker, Westinghouse, Lehigh Valley and Minor rails, all at small gains, continued the final hour, some representative issues yielding somewhat. The closing was firm.

MARTING'S 43rd Anniversary Celebration Starts Saturday

MAKE YOUR ARRANGEMENTS TO ATTEND EACH DAY FROM SATURDAY, OCTOBER 7 TO SATURDAY, OCTOBER 14. SEE TOMORROW'S TIMES.

Miss Dolly Wise

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, enigmas, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, O. Office Phone 44.

To the many people who have written me about Hallow'en suggestions, costumes, games, etc., and for ideas about bazaars, I would refer to the various women's magazines for October, which have most excellent suggestions.

Dear Miss Wise—Is there any one in Portsmouth who gives private dancing lessons. I want to learn to dance but I don't want anyone to know that I am taking lessons.

BACHELOR.

I do not know of any public or private dancing teacher in Portsmouth. Why don't you get some of your friends to teach you how to dance.

Dear Dolly—What is meant by the "Three Mile Limit" in speaking of ships or war vessels?

CURIOS.

Nations have control of the waters of the open seas for three miles from their shores—from low tide. That is to say, so far as the United States is concerned, all nations consider themselves within this country when they arrive at the three-mile limit. Outside of this three-mile limit it is known as "the open seas."

Dear Miss Wise—What steps would it be necessary for one to take to become connected with the United States secret service department.

SHERLOCK HOLMES.

Write to Secretary of the Treasury William G. McAdoo, Washington, D. C.

Miss Dolly Wise—Would you please answer the following: Where are the highest points in the United States and give the height of each. How high is Pike's Peak? What nationality are Sears & Roebuck, of Chicago? Is it true that the C. & O. bridge at Sciotoville is the longest span in the United States. When is it to be completed and what will it cost?

J. A. W.

Mt. McKinley, in Alaska, is 20,464 feet high. Mt. Ellis in the Cascade Mountains, 19,024 feet high. If I'm not mistaken, Sears and Roebuck are both dead, and the store is now owned by a corporation. The new C. & O. bridge contains the longest and heaviest riveted truss span in America. The bridge will cost approximately $2,000,000 when completed. You will find a full account of the bridge in The Times Korn Karnival edition.

Dear Miss Wise—Please tell me how to make a math bag. I want to know what kind of spices to put in it.

S. D. R.

Cedar chips, or if you can not get these, drop cedar oil upon ground cloves and cinnamon, crush gum camphor, and mix all together. Unless the smell of turpentine is disagreeable to you sprinkle spirits of turpentine freely upon the blended spices at

Try This If You Have Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This dissolves it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it gently with the finger tips.

By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single grain and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

SATISFACTION IN GLASSES

is a relative term and many wearers never know the full degree of comfort to be derived from correctly fitted eye glasses or spectacles.

Unless your glasses are wholly comfortable, giving you perfect vision, they are not optically correct and the error should be remedied at once.

We use every scientific method of value to determine your defects of vision. Then we use every precaution to see that you are fitted with glasses that conform exactly to this prescription. Our special toric lenses always give satisfaction.

Dear Dolly—What is the height, weight and average size of shoes worn by girls of 15 years?

RICHIE AND BETTIE

The measurements vary according to the style of the shoe. Some shoes are made from heavier leather than others, and some have extremely high tops, while others are only a medium height. In order to answer your question I would have to go to a shoe store and weigh and measure hundreds of shoes. The size also varies. Some 15-year-old girls wear fives and sixes while others have Cinderella feet.

Mrs. So and So—If I were you I would be as friendly as ever to the woman when she comes to see me, but I would not put myself out for her or call her up any more, unless it is necessary to do so. She probably thinks you can't get along without her, the reason she acts that way.

Dear Dolly—Some time ago I came into some knowledge regarding certain people, and knowing how outrageously unjust the woman in the case is to the children of her husband, who is old enough to be her father, and whom she is bleeding for all his wealth, I wrote her a letter telling her a few things I felt she should know, and they were all facts. She thinks she is blinding every one, but is not. I did not sign my name to the letter. Now I find that the man in the case has accused an innocent party of writing the letter, and it has caused some bitter feeling on both sides. I do not care for the parties to whom I wrote but I do feel sorry that an innocent person should suffer the blame. I am afraid to consult any one for advice as to how I can free the innocent party from blame, so write for your suggestion. I know I did a miserable mean trick, but I could not resist telling them, since they are so inhuman, and pretend to be so good. How can I tell them know that they are accusing the wrong person?

WORRIED.

You are guilty of a small, contemptible act, in sending the letter without signing it. In the first place, it is not your affair. If both the man and woman in the case are satisfied, what is it to you? If you do not care for the parties to whom you wrote, I can see no reason for doing it, other than you are a meddling person and like to make trouble. Your letter has caused some trouble, as it naturally would. You are causing innocent persons to be accused. The only thing for you to do is to go to the people to whom you wrote, and tell them that you were responsible for it. Then if you have any advice for either of them, tell them point blank, and perhaps they will listen to you. At any rate, they will get at the truth of the matter.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Louise Crawford and Mr. Adna Romulus Johnson, Jr. was given in this morning's Irontonian, as follows:

"The First Presbyterian church was crowded with a brilliant company of friends, Wednesday evening, awaiting with interest the culmination of a happy romance, begun during school days, in the wedding of Miss Margaret Louise Crawford and Mr. Adna Romulus Johnson, Jr. The churchy edifice was in readiness to receive the fair bride, the groom, and their chosen attendants. The altar was hidden beneath a wealth of palms, ferns and tall white lilies grouped to best advantage for the wedding scene.

"As the church filled with gathering friends they were greeted by music as Mrs. H. M. Paul skillfully played selections pleasing and appropriate. At the appointed hour the bridal procession entered to the stately measures of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. The ushers, Mr. Charles Crawford, Mr. Kelly Porter, of Shelbyville, Ind., Mr. Heritage Lewis, of Middleport, O., and Dr. Ellison Amos, of Cincinnati, leading the way.

"Then came the maids, the bride's closest friends. Their beautiful and girlish gowns were of varying shades of pink, modeled as Dame Fashion at present decrees. Their arms were filled with sunburst rosebuds tied with ribbons of tulle. Miss Katherine Fowler wore the orchid shade; Miss Rachael Bush, of Chicago, miss Nell Turley wore a deeper shade of tulle draped over a lighter pink; Mrs. W. A. Crawford's gown was of a softer shade of pink. Each gown was a creation of beauty, and worn with an air which added to their effective and artistic taste.

"The matriarch of honor, Mrs. A. T. Winsor, of Cambridge, Mass., a bride of a few weeks, was extremely lovely in her gown of flesh-color delicate pink net over satin. It was made with full skirt, short in length, and trimmed with silver lace. From her shoulders fell a broad panel forming a full-length train, now in fashion's favor. Her bouquet was also of sunburst roses.

"The tiny flower girls, Anne Stewart and Helen Herron, could readily be taken for the fairy folk, so airy were their pretty frocks of net over pink, the skirts of which were made of the full ruffles, from under which peeped tiny pink rosebuds. The short waists were fashioned of shirred ribbon and were as sweet and dainty as roses. They carried sweetheart crosses, knotted with streamers of narrow pink tulle.

"The fair and radiant bride, upon the arm of her brother, Mr. W. A. Crawford, was a vision of loveliness. Her poise and her grace enhanced her charm and added to the beauty of her exquisite wedding gown of white bridal veiling built over satin and heavily embroidered in silver. A train of veiling fell court length from her shoulders, this also embroidered in patterns of silver. A veil so sheer as to seem of mist was laid to place with a band of orange blossoms and valley lilies. The only jewel worn was a handsome bar pin of platinum set in diamonds, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was a shower of valley lilies.

"The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. C. M. Crawford. She is an extremely beautiful young woman and possesses every charm of woman and a sweet graciousness that have made her very dear to her large circle of friends. Her education was acquired at the most exclusive and select schools, having been a student at Briar Cliffe Manor, N. Y., and a graduate of Miss Sumner's school in Washington. The groom, Mr. Adna Johnson, with his best man, his brother, Mr. Newton Johnson, approached the wedding group from the east door, meeting his bride before the altar, where they pledged their troth, Rev. E. B. Townsend reading the ring service, while the melody of "Oh Promise Me" was softly played, merging at the close of the benediction to the enlivening strains of the Mendelssohn procession. The reception which followed the ceremony was given at the home of the bride's mother. The handsome home was ablaze with pink roses, while the dining-room was converted into a bower of flowers. This room was devoted to the bridal party. The table was softly lighted by pink candles placed in tall, slender candle-holders. A great cake of spun confecton, in rose design, graced the center of the table. The hanging lamp above was tied with a great bow of pink tulle. The bride and groom and their attendants received the guests with the bride's mother, Mrs. Crawford. Congratulations were showered upon the young couple for a happy journey through life. The gifts comprised a gorgeous assortment of silver, cut-glass and a variety of exquisite pieces of china and linens. Mr. and Mrs. Johnson have planned a delightful wedding trip. Mrs. R. R. Cunningham will be hostess at the next meeting of the Flinch Club.

Mrs. L. C. Ayres and little son have gone home to Bluefield, W. Va., after visiting friends during the Korn Karnival.

The Gibbons Social Club held an enjoyable meeting last evening at St. Mary's hall, where there was a goodly number present. Messrs. Joseph Kerrigan and Edward Kerns were the committee in charge. The evening was spent in cards and dancing. At cards Miss Anna Wolfe won the favor, a box of candy, and Mr. Edward Petry, Jr., won two pretty ties. Miss Mary Crowe, of McCullough, was an out-of-town guest.

Mrs. Laura Terry, of Marion, who is visiting Mrs. Rosa Mathiot, of Sciotoville, was a guest at dinner yesterday at the home of Mrs. Loren Yost and today was the dinner guest of Mrs. F. L. Sikes.

Mrs. Mary Crowe, of McCullough, is the guest of Mrs. Johanna Lardier.

The Y. W. C. A. High School club, "Do Shi Kai," will meet Friday afternoon at three o'clock, at the Y. W. C. A. The report of the General conference will be given and new officers will be elected. All old members are urged to attend.

The wedding of Miss Margaret Louise Crawford and Mr. Adna Romulus Johnson, Jr., was given in this morning's Irontonian, as follows:

"The First Presbyterian church was crowded with a brilliant company of friends, Wednesday evening, awaiting with interest the culmination of a happy romance, begun during school days, in the wedding of Miss Margaret Louise Crawford and Mr. Adna Romulus Johnson, Jr. The churchy edifice was in readiness to receive the fair bride, the groom, and their chosen attendants. The altar was hidden beneath a wealth of palms, ferns and tall white lilies grouped to best advantage for the wedding scene.

"As the church filled with gathering friends they were greeted by music as Mrs. H. M. Paul skillfully played selections pleasing and appropriate. At the appointed hour the bridal procession entered to the stately measures of the bridal chorus from Lohengrin. The ushers, Mr. Charles Crawford, Mr. Kelly Porter, of Shelbyville, Ind., Mr. Heritage Lewis, of Middleport, O., and Dr. Ellison Amos, of Cincinnati, leading the way.

"Then came the maids, the bride's closest friends. Their beautiful and girlish gowns were of varying shades of pink, modeled as Dame Fashion at present decrees. Their arms were filled with sunburst rosebuds tied with ribbons of tulle. Miss Katherine Fowler wore the orchid shade; Miss Rachael Bush, of Chicago, miss Nell Turley wore a deeper shade of tulle draped over a lighter pink; Mrs. W. A. Crawford's gown was of a softer shade of pink. Each gown was a creation of beauty, and worn with an air which added to their effective and artistic taste.

"The matriarch of honor, Mrs. A. T. Winsor, of Cambridge, Mass., a bride of a few weeks, was extremely lovely in her gown of flesh-color delicate pink net over satin. It was made with full skirt, short in length, and trimmed with silver lace. From her shoulders fell a broad panel forming a full-length train, now in fashion's favor. Her bouquet was also of sunburst roses.

"The tiny flower girls, Anne Stewart and Helen Herron, could readily be taken for the fairy folk, so airy were their pretty frocks of net over pink, the skirts of which were made of the full ruffles, from under which peeped tiny pink rosebuds. The short waists were fashioned of shirred ribbon and were as sweet and dainty as roses. They carried sweetheart crosses, knotted with streamers of narrow pink tulle.

"The fair and radiant bride, upon the arm of her brother, Mr. W. A. Crawford, was a vision of loveliness. Her poise and her grace enhanced her charm and added to the beauty of her exquisite wedding gown of white bridal veiling built over satin and heavily embroidered in silver. A train of veiling fell court length from her shoulders, this also embroidered in patterns of silver. A veil so sheer as to seem of mist was laid to place with a band of orange blossoms and valley lilies. The only jewel worn was a handsome bar pin of platinum set in diamonds, the gift of the groom. Her bouquet was a shower of valley lilies.

"The bride is the only daughter of Mrs. C. M. Crawford. She is an extremely beautiful young woman and possesses every charm of woman and a sweet graciousness that have made her very dear to her large circle of friends. Her education was acquired at the most exclusive and select schools, having been a student at Briar Cliffe Manor, N. Y., and a graduate of Miss Sumner's school in Washington. The groom, Mr. Adna Johnson, with his best man, his brother, Mr. Newton Johnson, approached the wedding group from the east door, meeting his bride before the altar, where they pledged their troth, Rev. E. B. Townsend reading the ring service, while the melody of "Oh Promise Me" was softly played, merging at the close of the benediction to the enlivening strains of the Mendelssohn procession. The reception which followed the ceremony was given at the home of the bride's mother. The handsome home was ablaze with pink roses, while the dining-room was converted into a bower of flowers. This room was devoted to the bridal party. The table was softly lighted by pink candles placed in tall, slender candle-holders. A great cake of spun confecton, in rose design, graced the center of the table. The hanging lamp above was tied with a great bow of pink tulle. Brigade Defeat The Rumanians

Sofia, Wednesday, Oct. 4.—(Via London, Oct. 5.)—Bulgarian troops from the fortresses of Rastchuk and Turtukai attacked and defeated the Rumanian forces of some sixteen battalions which recently crossed the Danube into Bulgarian territory near Rahova the war office announced today.

On the main battle line in Dobrudja attempts by the Russians and Rumanians to advance have been frustrated by the artillery and by successful counter-attacks. The statement follows: "Rumanian front—On the Danube front fifteen or sixteen Rumanian battalions without artillery which crossed the Danube near Rahova advanced and occupied the villages of Siwopol, Kambale, Borissawa, Maolowrnawa, Golewornjowa and Breschlic. In order to repulse them we sent two columns from Rastchuk and Turtukai."

On October 3 the troops from Rastchuk attacked the enemy and speedily forced him to seek refuge in the direction of his Pontoon bridge which was destroyed by Austrian monitors. The battlefield is covered with enemy dead.

"Toward evening we occupied the villages of Linhow and Bahov. The enemy troops retreated in disorder eastward, consequently meeting our troops advancing from Turtukai. The enemy was dispersed in several directions. Our troops today are completing his destruction."

STOMACH MEDICINES ARE DANGEROUS

Doctors Now Advise Magnesia

Just how dangerous it is to indiscriminately dose the stomach with drugs and medicines is often not realized until too late. It seems so simple to swallow a dose of some special mixture of take tablets of soda, pepsin, bismuth, etc., after meals, and the folly of this drugging is not apparent until, perhaps years afterward, when it is found that gastric ulcers have almost eaten their way through the stomach walls. Regrets are then unavailing; it is in the early stages when indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, flatulence, etc., indicates excessive acidity of the stomach and fermentation of food contents that precaution should be taken. Drugs and medicines are unsuitable and often dangerous—they have little or no influence upon the harmful acid, and that is why doctors are discarding them and advising sufferers from indigestion and stomach trouble to get rid of the dangerous acid and keep the food contents bland and sweet by taking a little pure bicarbonate of soda instead. Bismuthated Magnesia is an absolutely pure anti-acid which can be readily obtained from any drug store. It is absolutely harmless, is practically tasteless and a teaspoonful taken in a little warm or cold water after meals, will usually be found quite sufficient to instantly neutralize excessive acidity of the stomach and prevent all possibility of the food fermenting.

Woman Is Charged With Contributing To Delinquency Of Girl 13 Years Old

Mrs. Nora Lemmon, aged 18, of Mill and Waller streets, was given a hearing before Mayor Kaps, Thursday morning upon a charge of contributing to the delinquency of 13-year-old Lucille Gardner to which she pleaded not guilty.

The Gardner child's mother,

EVEN CROSS, SICK CHILDREN LOVE SYRUP OF FIGS

Look at tongue! If feverish, bilious, constipated, take no chances

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm tender stomach, liver, bowels.

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste. When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs" and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative" and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeiters sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the California Fig Syrup company. Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup.

Mrs. Sylvia M. Gardner, was the prosecuting witness in the case. She explained to the court that for the past week she and her daughter had been occupying a room at the Hotel Portsmouth. She said she was ignorant of the character of Mrs. Lemmon and therefore did not object to Lucille going out with her the past few days and had agreed that Mrs. Lemmon remain with her until her own return to the hotel Wednesday night. When she arrived herself at 11 o'clock she found that her daughter and companion were not in the room while the room was still filled with cigarette smoke which was plain evidence that someone had left it just shortly before. Some beer bottle openers were on a stand and there was also a bottle of beer in the room. She at once began a hunt for the girls and found them looking on at a dance in the Moose hall at Third and Washington streets. She then caused the Lemmon woman's arrest.

Mrs. Gardner said that her daughter told her that Nora had gone to some picture show with her and then took her to the Bault cafe, although she protested that she would never be admitted because of her age but that she told her to pass herself off as 18 years old. She said Nora ordered four beers but that Lucille refused to drink instead insisting upon taking soft drinks.

Lucille, who is a rather attractive looking little girl in short dresses still wearing her hair in tresses, corroborated her mother's statement, adding that Nora made a date with two men to meet them on the flood wall and that when they got to the appointed place where the fellows awaited them she insisted upon walking on, saying to Nora that a policeman was watching them. She said the policeman stopped her and asked her where she lived.

Mrs. Lemmon said the girl had repeatedly told her that she was 18 years old.

"Why any person with half sense can tell that she is not that old," said the mayor.

Mrs. Lemmon also insisted that it was upon Lucille's suggestion that they visited the cafe and said that the evening before she had made a date for them to accompany two fellows in an automobile but something upset the plans and they were unable to get a machine.

Mrs. Lemmon said some fellow at the cafe had given the cigarettes to Lucille but that the person who waited upon her had informed her that she could be served only soft drinks as he was satisfied she was not 18 years old.

Mrs. Lemmon said she was a daughter of William Evans, of Mill and Waller streets, but that she lived with her grandmother next door. She said she had been married two years but was separated from her husband and did not know his whereabouts.

The court reminded Mrs. Lemmon that it was not the first time she had taken out young girls and said if she did not work, as claimed by her, she must have some other means of a livelihood. He ordered her held for further investigation while Chief Clark was directed to take the Gardner child to the juvenile court. The mayor addressing the mother said it was plainly evident something would have to be done to curb the girl before it was too late and advised that the Girls' Industrial Home at Delaware would be the proper place for her. "That's up to you, I've done all I can," exclaimed the mother. "No, it's up to Judge Beatty," replied the mayor.

Child Sets Fire To House And Family Is Left Destitute

A child playing with matches in a wood box, is the cause assigned to a fire which destroyed the home of Charles Schuler, Flat Woods, two miles east of Lucasville, Wednesday afternoon, at 4:30 o'clock.

The father is in the northern part of the state cutting corn. The mother and four little children were alone. While the mother was busy about her house-work, one of the children found some matches and lighted them in the wood box. A blaze was soon kindled. It spread rapidly from the kitchen to the other parts of the home, which was a small frame cottage.

The screams of the child brought the mother to the kitchen. By the time she had gotten her children to a place of safety, the flames had practically enveloped her home. It burned to the ground.

LOCAL COUPLE PRINCIPALS IN A SENSATIONAL DIVORCE SUIT

Relative to the sensational marital troubles of a former Portsmouth couple, now residents of Cincinnati, the Enquirer Wednesday said: "Dramatically naming Attorney M. W. Conway, veteran member of the Hamilton County Bar, as an invader of his home, Leslie Cooper, 1528 Eastern avenue, made a vigorous defense to the suit of his wife, Sophia, Portsmouth, Ohio, in Domestic Relations Court yesterday. Mrs. Cooper's suit is for alimony, and her husband, on cross-petition, seeks divorce.

Attorney Conway was not present when the charge was made. The case was being tried by his son, Robert D. Conway, and Clifford J. Mueller, member of his firm. He appeared at the afternoon session of court, however, and denounced the statement of Cooper as a "base and wicked lie."

Cooper charged his troubles with his wife began seven years ago, when they were living at 8113 Columbia avenue, in a house owned by Attorney Conway.

Sees Man Climb Fence
"He said he returned from work as a conductor of the Pennsylvania Railway one afternoon, to see Conway walk up Tusculum avenue and climb over a high fence in the rear of his residence. On entering, he said he found the two in a room. He said he went out and obtained a gun.

"I stood at the door with the weapon," said he, "but realized my case was hopeless. I thought, 'If I kill them there is no one to see it now.' I told both of them, 'You know what you have done,' and I told her she never could be a wife to me again."

Cooper said he afterward lived in the same house with his wife, only for the sake of their children. "There were three little tots then—there are only two now," he said. "Two weeks later, he said, he met Conway on a car, and charged the latter left the car at the next stop. Mrs. Cooper had charged her husband sought a divorce in order that he might marry Mrs. Jennie Cordell, 3016 Fairfield avenue, and Mrs. Cordell was called by Attorney Charles Bell, counsel for Cooper.

Both Members of Societies
She said she was separated from her husband, but never had been divorced. She admitted she was a member of several secret societies to which Cooper belonged, and said the affairs of Cooper and his wife had been discussed at meetings. Mrs. Cordell testified she had thought of suing for divorce, and had applied to Attorney Conway, who had told her that it would cost $10.45 to file a petition and $7.75 for advertising. If she went to dinner with him, two or three times, she alleges he offered, no fee would be required.

Attorney Conway said he never had heard of the charge made by Cooper until this suit was filed. He said when Mrs. Cooper wrote from Portsmouth, Ohio, requesting him to take the case, he did not remember her, and wrote to her asking who she was. When she told him she was the Mrs. Cooper who had lived in his house, he remembered her, he said. Attorney Conway also denied he had told Mrs. Cordell no fee would be charged in an action for divorce if she went to dinner with him.

"Mrs. Cooper charged her husband had given her only $100 for the support of their two children since April, but he produced money order receipts showing he had paid her $40 a month. Judge Hoffman took the case under advisement and said he would render a decision Monday.

WILL SPEAK ON ADAMSON BILL AT G. O. P. MEETING

Hon. W. O. Jackson, member of the Ohio General Assembly, Clark county, Springfield, will deliver an address upon the Adamson eight hour bill at the "Hip Hurrah" meeting of the Scioto county Republicans Friday evening. The Republican campaign in this county will be formally launched at this meeting.

Mr. Jackson was a locomotive engineer for 21 years, resigning in 1901, when he received an appointment to the position of Chief Inspector of Railroads in Ohio. This position he held for several years. His explanation of the Adamson bill, which is one of the issues of the fall election, is said to be of interest to every voter. Hon. Harry W. Miller will address the local Republicans upon topics of interest. All electors, regardless of party affiliation, are invited to attend the Friday evening meeting, which will be held at the Scioto County Republican Club rooms, Gallia street.

DEPUTY SHERIFF ROME ARTHUR POLICE CHIEF AT STEEL PLANT

Deputy Sheriff Rome Arthur is to be the next Chief of Police at the Whitaker-Glessner Steel company, according to an announcement made Wednesday evening. He will succeed John Milliken, who recently left. It has been rumored for the past two days that Deputy Sheriff Arthur would be the next chief of the Steel plant police squad, but the report was not confirmed until Wednesday evening. Deputy Arthur stated that he had accepted the position and had forwarded his resignation to Sheriff E. W. Smith. The new position carries a handsome raise in salary.

During his stay in the Sheriff's office Mr. Arthur made an enviable record for faithful discharge of duties that were assigned to him; going at times to the most inaccessible parts of the county in the dead of night to round up desperate men. He made a fearless officer. It is probable that Mr. Arthur will assume his new duties Monday. Sam Phillips has been selected to serve as night chief at the Steel Plant.

Prices High In '76

C. M. White, Chillicothe restaurant man, in going through a box of "keepers," Wednesday, uncovered a bill for groceries bought by his father-in-law, Charles McCoy, Ohio riverman, in January, 1876. Everybody is complaining about the high cost of living these days, but "way back in 1876 a barrel of flour sold for $7.75, while today the price is near the $8.75 mark. A pound of tobacco at that time sold for 85 cents and a box of baking powder cost 50 cents. Beans and other commodities were also high priced at that time.

At the end of the time men-came to the city. They rented their old home, including the fur-

Arriving in the city they went to Alspaugh for furniture, where they bought the best kind for the right price. As it was nearly noon and they were very hungry they next went to the Ever-Eat restaurant on 705 Chillicothe street.

Here everything was well cooked and well served. They next went to the Central Hardware company and bought a cook stove of good quality and a small price. Pa then went to Luck and English, of glasses which took away the strain and brought relief. While

Pa was there, Ma went to Dan Dodge, Optician, bought a pair of

They boarded a street car and

"STORMY" EXECUTIVE SESSION HELD BY COUNCIL ON FLOODWALL "EXTRAS"

New Boston Annexation Is Also Given A Whirl; Triangle "Condemned"

City Solicitor Anselm Skelton explained to council that the passage of an ordinance to submit the annexation matter to a vote of the people at the coming election, was a formality and it had to go through under the law. He said that since the New Boston council had failed to enact the legislation the county commissioners would hold a meeting Thursday afternoon for the purpose of passing it over the New Boston council's head. To make it legal the city council has to pass an ordinance submitting the question to a vote.

An executive session lasting over an hour which council held at the suggestion of Mayor H. H. Kaps, shortly after convening, to take up some matters the public service and safety departments wished to present, was said to be a stormy affair. The sober countenances of the city solons as they took their seats at the opening of the regular meeting, presaged the clash that was to come. Some plain talk is said to have been indulged in by Mayor Kaps and City Engineer Harper on the one side and Floor Leader Wilson, on the other. Extra allowances on the new flood-wall work is said to have been one of the subjects warmly discussed and it was noticed that the legislation prepared by the solicitor appropriating $1,000 to pay for extra work done by the S. Monroe & Son Company at the Point, was not presented, as expected.

When council reconvened, Mr. Wilson announced with considerable emphasis, "Council will take no action tonight upon matters discussed during the executive session."

Free Sanitary Sewer Service Is Granted

Perhaps it was the excitement under which the members were laboring that caused one of the electric fans in the room to start revolving of its own accord and make council vote free water and free sanitary sewer service to the Wesley Hall Mission, only to discover later that it could not provide the latter without building a new sewer addition, for there is no such sewer directly behind the Mission building.

Mr. Vandervort had presented a verbal petition, explaining that Wesley Hall had changed from a private to a public institution and said the street committee was willing that it should have the service it needed. Rev. J. E. Di- bert, who has charge of the mission, was present and was given the privilege of addressing council. He told of the work the mission was doing in providing shelter and comfort to "down and outs," but said the place was "up against it" in the way of proper drainage, a well in the basement now being used for that purpose, sometimes overflowing and causing stenches and unsanitary conditions generally.

Mayor Kaps spoke in favor of granting the service asked for, heartily agreeing with the street committee. He said the mission was doing a good work and taking care of many persons who the city otherwise would have to provide for, in fact, was doing far more good than most people realized and expressed the hope that council could see its way clear to grant relief.

Mr. Wilson, accepting as true that the mission was a public institution and not owned by any congregation or set of men, moved that the petition be received and the request granted, which motion carried.

Later in the meeting Service Director Culvert renewed the subject. He said that while council was perfectly within its rights under the law to grant free water service to a public institution, he could not see how any sanitary sewerage relief could be given for that fund was now exhausted.

Mr. Wilson now explained that when he made his motion he was under the impression that only a sanitary sewer tap was required. He asked Engineer Harper about how much it would cost to make a sewer extension to give the required relief. Mr. Harper thought it would be from $125 to $150. City Auditor Zucker at this juncture informed council that there was $100 left in the sewer fund.

Mr. Wilson moved that the service department bring in an estimate, saying as he resumed his seat, "And council will try to find some way to build it." Later in the evening he presented a motion directing the solicitor to create a $2,000 bond issue to take care of the mission sewer and other sewer petitions on file or that might be presented later. This passed.

Condemnation Proceedings To Acquire Triangle

Council authorized the solicitor to institute condemnation proceedings to acquire the triangular strip of ground at Twelfth street and Robinson avenue for park purposes. The solicitor previously reported that the owner, Mrs. C. E. Province, was demanding $3,000 cash for it. Chairman Riekey, of the street committee, declared the price too high, saying the ground was on the tax duplicate for a low figure, although it had increased in value somewhat in the last few years. Mr. Johnson, while wanting it understood that he was not opposed to the measure, advised caution and careful investigation, saying such proceedings oftentimes proved expensive affairs. The solicitor estimated it would not exceed $75 unless the city failed to exercise its option after a jury had once fixed a price in which event it would have to pay the lawyers, etc., of the defense, as well. Mr. Wilson wondered if a compromise figure could not be arranged. Council finally voted to go ahead with the condemnation proceedings.

Resolutions were passed approving the bonds of the various local banks as depositaries for public monies, the First National to receive $125,000, the Central National $40,000, the Security bank $45,000, Ohio Valley bank $12,000 and The Portsmouth Banking Company $10,000.

Alley Paving Is Discussed By Council

A recommendation of Chairman Riekey, of the street committee that the one square alley between Eleventh and Robinson avenue east of Lawson, be improved; revived the subject of alley improvements generally. Mr. Roush wanted to know of the solicitor what conclusion he had reached regarding alley paving. Mr. Skelton assured him he had not changed any from his original opinion early in the year that alleys be paved along the same plan as streets, but said the only reason why no activity had been shown was because he believed no alleys should be paved until sewers had first been installed though he stood ready to prepare any legislation along that line that council might order. Mr. Riekey's petition was ordered filed, pending the building of a sewer in the alley referred to.

Mr. Vandervort demanded an explanation of the failure to lay water mains up Mabert Road, although legislation appropriating money for the purpose had passed last December. He said Judge Thomas had 18 houses there and was building 6 more and had no water service, although he had dedicated a street to the city. Director Culvert gave as a reason for not laying the mains that there was a sewer under construction there, some grading required and other conditions that precluded doing the work which he said had been contemplated for this season. "We simply didn't get to it," he said, adding with a smile as he took his seat, that the locality referred to it outside the corporation line.

Mr. Culvert reported that Clerk Zucker had received from the state board of health a copy of an ordinance making it compulsory for property owners to tap into sanitary sewers. He thought this ought to be taken up before any real campaign of paving alleys was started.

Council approved the report of the board of control favoring condemnation proceedings in order that a sidewalk may be laid in front of the Henry Hanes property and connect up with Armstrong Place, directing the solicitor to prepare the necessary legislation. The mayor said Hanes was alone in his stand and none of his neighbors were with him.

The schedule amounting to $148.55 was allowed. Clerk Zucker reported having served notices on property owners of the proposed improvement of Dexter avenue, Madison street, Jefferson street, Kinney street and Poplar street.

Injunction Vacated; Suit Is Dismissed

A temporary injunction secured by Mary A. Schneider against Lena Lang, restraining her from razing her part of a double house located on Fourth street, was vacated by Judge Thomas in common pleas court Thursday. The grounds given for the vacation of the temporary restraining order, was that the defendant had taken the necessary steps to protect the property of the plaintiff.

The case was instituted several weeks ago by the plaintiff asking restraining order against the defendant, claiming that Lena Lang intended to raze her portion of the double house without regard to the material damage to the plaintiff's part. The temporary order was allowed.

The case has been dismissed. Theo. K. Funk represented the plaintiff and Alex C. Woodrow the defendant.

LOCAL DELEGATES TO ATTEND MEET

One of the largest and most important organized labor conventions held in many years will be formally opened at Memorial hall, Toledo, October 9. The convention is the annual meeting of the Ohio State Federation of Labor. Several delegates from this city will leave the latter part of the week for the convention.

Labor legislation, an anti-injunction law and the Workingmen's Compensation law will be the main issues, it is said.

Among those going from this city are: Louis Herder, president of the Central Labor Council; Henry A. Kuhn, president of the Brewery Workers; Albert Haag, delegate from the Painters, Paperhangers and Decorators; M. H. Ogden, delegate from the Carpenters and Joiners; George A. Ditty, Stationary Engineers; Frank Russell, delegate from the Bartenders' League; and Ralph Brauner, delegate for the Pipefitters' Union. Hamilton, Springfield and Cincinnati are striving to land the next meeting of the Ohio State Federation of Labor, it is reported.

Patrolman Resigns

Patrolman Dudley Templeman resigned from the police force Wednesday, making the second officer to leave the department within a week.

Chief Henry Clark stated Thursday that Templeman gave no reason for quitting and he himself was aware of none. Templeman will probably resume his former position as a car repairer at the N. & W. shops.

every piece of furniture in its place. Johnny was sent to the grocery to buy two loaves of Milk Maid bread, baked by Adam Pfau, and no other because it is nourishing and baked in a sanitary bakery, and also to order a sack of Creme De La Creme Flour for it is free from adulteration and produces good bread and cakes. After supper they decided to go to the Lyric theatre which is the best and best patronized in the city. Before going to the theatre Pa was measured for a new suit by the Three Little Tailors, 820 Gallia street, whose suits are the best of woollens and the snappiest patterns. As the furniture was paid for they decided to place the remainder of their money in the Royal Savings & Loan company, 819 Gallia street, because it pays 4 percent interest on any account.

Some time after this, Ma wished to bake a pie so Johnny was sent to P. H. Harsha, 2007-09 Eighth street, to buy a sack of Magnolia Flour for it bakes the best pies and cakes. After buying the flour he went to the Pure Milk company 1619-21 Eighth street, and bought a gallon of milk which was pure and fresh.

As Xmas was coming Pa decided to give Ma a ring bought of E. D. White, 624 Second street, who has a complete line of beautiful jewelry, and also his picture taken by O. B. King, 211 Chillicothe street, whose pictures are always a splendid likeness. For Johnny's present Pa went to Henry Roth, 420 Chillicothe street, where one can secure the best at a small price. Here he bought a fishing outfit. Wishing to surprise Ma he next went to H. E. Hawk's, Third and Chillicothe street, and had his teeth fixed at a low price although a good grade of work.

When Pa returned home Ma went out shopping. The first place she went to was Bill Abrahams, Room 3 Kricker building, where she bought Pa a good warm overcoat at a reasonable price. She then went to Mulvazas, Fifth and Chillicothe streets, and bought several boxes of pure, fresh candy. She next went to Emil Arthurs, 421 Gay street, and bought a bicycle for Johnny which was one of the finest without a doubt. As the chickens needed feed she went to J. F. Newman, 907 Gallia street, where you get the finest chicken feed in the city.

The next day Ma went to Roy H. Wendelken, 905 Gallia street, to have her watch repaired as Mr. Wendelken's repair shop proves a source of profit to you. She then went to Wurster Bros., 419 Chillicothe street, and bought some cough medicine which did her more good than a doctor's prescription. The third place she went to was the Hutchison-Waumer company, 1003 Gallia street. Here she bought a beautiful piano at a reasonable price. Ma always likes books in her home so the last place she went was the Corner Book Store, Second and Chillicothe street, where she bought several books which she could not get at the other book stores. The day before Xmas Pa went to the Play House, Sixth and Chillicothe street, and bought a box of some very fine cigars. He also went to the Leet Lumber company, Ninth and Washington streets, and ordered some lumber to rebuild his old home in the country. He went there because it's the headquarters for builders' supplies. The third place he went was the Keystone Press, 808-10 Fourth street, and had some bills printed. He then returned home and spent a very happy Xmas the next day.

SERBS CROSS TCHERNA RIVER NIGHT RIDERS SEIZE MILK AND DUMP IT ON THE ROADS

MUCH TERRITORY RECAPTURED FROM GERMAN ALLIES

Paris, Oct. 5.—The Serbians have crossed the Tcherma river and defeated their adversary in Nice mountains in Serbia and also captured the Sessali railroad station, according to advices received here. The Serbian territory recaptured now embraces 230 square kilometers, including 7 towns.

French and Russians also continue victoriously in their forward movement.

EXPRESS CRASHES INTO STOCK TRAIN

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 5.—Two men probably killed, an engineer was seriously scalded and a dozen mail clerks and passengers were more or less injured early today when the Mercantile Express on the Pennsylvania railroad between Pittsburgh and New York crashed into the rear of a stock train at the west end of the Lewistown yards. The tracks were blocked for more than four hours.

RIOTING IN MILK WAR IN NEW YORK; STATE IS TO PROBE THE CONTROVERSY

New York, Oct. 5.—Efforts to compromise the controversy between the milk producers and the city distributors having failed, consumers today pinned their hopes upon the state investigation which is to begin before a referee here tomorrow.

Some indication of a possible settlement also was seen in an offer by one of the big distributors to give the farmers an advance of 35 cents per hundred pounds of the prices heretofore prevailing. The Dairywomen's League insists upon an advance of 45 cents a hundred pounds. It was rumored that one of the distributors had decided to withdraw from the conference over the price and make a separate peace with the producers.

There is a shortage of about one-half in the city's daily supply and it is stated that one of the big distributors is receiving only about one-third the normal quantity of milk. Dealers asserted there was no danger of a famine. Representatives of the Dairywomen's League said the city supply was shorter today than ever.

From up state counties and New Jersey came news of more rioting and raids by farmers upon the milk stations and wagons. Masked night riders again held up and dumped milk in transport to railroad stations. The farmers said hundreds of new members were joining the league and that their position was stronger than ever.

SLAYS MAN SHE CLAIMS WRONGED HER, THEN KILLS SELF

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 5.—Alphonso Wetterer, 49 years old, vice president and secretary of the Wetterer Brewing Company, of this city, who, it is believed, was shot by Helen Houck, 30 years old at the latter's home in Walnut Hills, last night, died at the city's general hospital early today. Miss Houck was found dead with a bullet hole through her right temple in the same room where Wetterer was found with two bullet wounds in his head.

No one witnessed the shooting, but Miss Houck left a note addressed to her sister, Ruth Houck, which the police and Coroner Foranmyer said indicated that she shot Wetterer and then herself.

The note left by Helen Houck stated that she had been keeping company with Wetterer for several months and charged that he had wronged her.

Helen Houck was the divorced wife of William Eyehardt, formerly of Norwood, a suburb of Cincinnati, but now residing in Colorado.

WILSON REGISTER TODAY NOW IN IOWA

Jefferson, Iowa, Oct. 5.—Greatly pleased with his reception in the middle west, President Wilson reached here early today on the last lap of his journey to Omaha, where he is due at 11:40 o'clock this morning to make two speeches and review a parade. He planned during the morning to adhere to his policy of refusing to make campaign speeches en route, but to appear at every stop and shake hands with the people.

ODDS ON HUGHES REDUCED

New York, Oct. 5.—Wall street, whose vision never reaches west of Philadelphia, at last heard of the political trend in the Middle-West, and today reduced the odds on Hughes in the election betting to 9 to 5. And even at this figure there was very little Hughes money in sight. Edward McQuade, a Curb Broker, placed $10,000 to $15,000 on President Wilson, and later on, offered $5,000 more, but found no takers. E. J. Stokes, another curb broker, had $4,000 to place on Hughes at 9 to 5. There was much more Wilson money in evidence in the Wall street district yesterday than at any time since the opening of the campaign. Hughes cash was very scarce.

Judgment By Confession.
Judgment by confession was given the plaintiff in the case of the Standard Supply Company against Edward Addis, Wednesday in Squire Waldon's court, Sciotoville. The amount given was $35 and accrued interest, due on an account. Attorney Mark A. Crawford, represented the plaintiff.

"Act, If Passed, Would Be More Infamous Than The Invasion Of Belgium"

New York, Oct. 5.—A cablegram protesting against a reported attempt in the British House of Commons to deport Russian and Rumanian refugees from England, unless they join the British army was sent today to Sir Herbert Samuel, home secretary of England. The protest was the result of a mass meeting here last night called by the national workmen's committee on Jewish rights, which is said to represent 500,000 workers.

Speakers attacked Mr. Samuel for advancing the proposal. Representative Meyer, London, said that if the act, which it was stated, comes up in the House of Commons Monday, were passed, it would be more infamous than the invasion of Belgium by the Germans. The cablegram sent to Mr. Samuel reads as follows:

"The Jews are victimized practically now in all the warring countries in Russia and Austria, in Rumania and in Turkey. It would be a great misfortune to the cause of humanity if England, the traditional land of freedom and democracy, should join the forces oppressing the Jews."

Dispatches from London in August stated that the British government had proposed to enact a law to send to Russia the Russian and Polish Jews living in England unless they enlisted in the British army, but this aroused a storm of disapproval. A committee of leading Russian Jews was then organized to conduct an active recruiting campaign. An offer was to be made to Jews who enlisted before September 30 last to remit their naturalization fees and to organize them into a Jewish corps.

Willis Takes Issue With Cox On Handling Saloons

Alliance, Ohio, Oct. 5.—Governor Frank B. Willis took direct issue here last night with his opponent, James M. Cox, upon the question of the handling of saloons in Ohio during the present administration and that of Ex-Governor Cox. "It is a matter of common knowledge throughout Ohio that during the term of my opponent the granting of saloon licenses was deferred until the very last moment before the election as a part of the scheme to build up a gigantic political machine in this state," said Governor Willis. "This administration is enforcing the rule that saloon licenses shall be granted at an early date before elections so that there shall be no suspicion that the license granting power is being used as a club to hold saloon-keepers in line."

Governor Willis was greeted by a large crowd at the Columbia theatre, before the meeting the famous McKinley club of Canton, with the Grand Army band, led a torch-light procession. The governor was the guest of honor during the day. Wednesday, at the opening of the industrial exposition at Massillon, he was entertained at luncheon by the Chamber of Commerce, led and reviewed a procession three miles long and delivered a non-partisan address in the afternoon from the main exposition building. All the shops, stores and schools of Massillon were closed in honor of the occasion, which brought out a crowd of many thousands from all parts of Stark county.

2 KILLED; MANY ARE INJURED

Altoona, Pa., Oct. 5.—Two men probably killed, an engineer was seriously scalded and a dozen mail clerks and passengers were more or less injured early today when the Mercantile Express on the Pennsylvania railroad between Pittsburgh and New York crashed into the rear of a stock train at the west end of the Lewistown yards. The tracks were blocked for more than four hours.

The freight train crumpled and four cabin cars and three stock cars were strewn across the tracks completely blocking traffic. Almost instantly fire broke out in the wreckage and while rescuers were taking the engineers from his crushed engine where he had been seriously scalded, others were trying to extinguish the flames.

Many of the passengers assisted in the work when it became known that Conductor Ethelberger and a driver were missing and were believed to be burning up in the wreck, but their efforts availed little as the cars burned fiercely. No less than a dozen of the passengers had been injured when the trains struck but none seriously.

One track was finally cleared shortly before six o'clock and the fire was finally extinguished but the bodies of the missing men had not been recovered an hour afterward.

Columbus, O., Oct. 5.—Among the 55,102 adult male wage earners in Cleveland and Cuyahoga county in industrial establishments, 50 percent received less than $15 a week.

These are figures given out by George F. Miles, chief statistician of the State Industrial Commission. Forty-seven percent of the 27,000 female wage-earners received less than $8 a week and 11 percent received $12 or more per week.

Prices High In '76

C. M. White, Chillicothe restaurant man, in going through a box of "keepsakes," Wednesday, uncovered a bill for groceries bought by his father-in-law, Charles McCoy, Ohio riverman, in January, 1876. Everybody is complaining about the high cost of living these days, but "way back in 1876 a barrel of flour sold for $7.75, while today the price is near the $8.75 mark. A pound of tobacco at that time sold for 85 cents and a box of baking powder cost 50 cents. Beans and other commodities were also high priced at that time.

DEMOCRATS- WILL CARRY OHIO, SAYS CONG. ALLEN

New York, Oct. 5.—Congressman Alfred G. Allen, of Ohio, told Chairman Vance C. McCormick, at Democratic National Headquarters today that the Democrats are surely going to carry the Buckeye state.

"There is every indication that President Wilson will carry Ohio," Congressman Allen said. "The Republicans themselves admit this. The workmen of Ohio are strong for the President. The fact that President Wilson has kept the country peaceful and prosperous has made him a strong favorite with the voters of the state."

SIMPLY AS CITIZENS

Usually, when there is a proposition to vote bonds to build a new court house, the result is often affected by a feeling of enmity between town and country. We do not believe that feeling is likely to be of consequence here in Scioto county, in the matter should the submission of court house bonds appear on the ballot. There is little of enmity between city and townships. The country people are just about as proud of Portsmouth as its own citizens are and they understand full well she furnishes them the best local market there is in the state. On the other hand the people of the city feel kindly to their "country cousins". Why should they not when an overwhelming majority of us are country-bred ourselves and thousands came from the country round about and have folks and kin within a few miles. And we are proud of the county too. Don't we brag of the best brick, the greatest corn valley, the hills upon which wonderful red apples grow, the charming scenery and they are all in the county.

What we all ought to do is to approach this subject as citizens and tax-payers and ask ourselves if Scioto county really needs a new court house, and can she afford to build it? That is all there is to be considered in the proposition, and nothing else materially matters. We'll quite agree the present structure isn't modern, that it affords no protection whatsoever against the destruction of valuable records by fire and theft, that it does in no wise commensurate to the dignity and wealth the county has taken on. We escort the visitor around town and puff and swell with the showing of our streets, factories and school houses, but we keep him away from the west end of Sixth street, lest he may point to an ancient shack and inquire: "What building is that?" and we will have to shamefacedly confess it is the court house.

This brings us up then to the one proposition, can the county afford to build it? Our position is that a county, like an individual, can not only afford, but in self respect ought to have an abode in keeping with its means and importance. Scioto is big, it is wealthy and growing richer every year. It is famed far and wide for having one of the best industrial cities there is in the land. It is envied all over the state and even beyond for its progressiveness and ability that enables it to build confessedly the best roads to be found anywhere. A modern court house would be a proper complement to the development upon which she is so bravely advancing.

THE STORY OF THE SOMME

The most absorbing account of the tremendous drive the allies have been carrying on for weeks, on the western front, is to be found in the London Observer of September 17, which came to The Times exchange desk, but two or three days ago.

It is commonly accepted over here that the censorship over the British press is so tight that scarcely anything of importance, pertaining to the war, is published. Either this is a mistake, or the Observer has a wonderful prescience in interpreting both what has happened and what is going to happen, if the plans of the English and French commanders succeed. The story of what occurred on the Somme, up to the date mentioned, is told vividly and what operations were going to take place is told with an accuracy altogether uncanny, seeing how the forecasts have been identically verified by what has since transpired. According to the Observer there was division in the German war councils, immediately preceding the beginning of the drive, Falkenhayn demanding more men for the west and Hindenburg insisting on more battalions for the east. It would seem Hindenburg got what he wanted, so he was able to bring the Russians almost to a pause, but Falkenhayn has not been sufficiently strengthened to keep the allies back and slowly, but remorselessly, they are creeping forward. And if the Observer fortells as accurately of Bapaume and Peronne as it did why and how Thiepval and Combles would fall, their end is simply a matter of days.

Having guessed so much it does not necessarily follow the Observer is able to foretell all, but its story of what is going on along the Somme is brightly illuminating as well as intensely interesting because it reveals so much to the perplexed mind that has no idea of strategy and the peculiar phases of it in an entirely new kind of warfare. One can feel after reading it that as the campaign proceeds he can gain a definite idea as to what result it foretelling.

There is a sidelight in the Observer's article that is especially fine and gratifying. Certainly, it has strong praise for the achievements of the British, who it infers are just beginning to fight as the British fight, but its warmest words, its most unstinted congratulations are reserved for what it chooses to designate "the genius of France." Merry England's lads, and the Observer does not fail to note that the lads at the front are always Irish, have won bold advance, but strive as they might they have not been able to keep up with the brilliant work of the sons of LaBelle France; in calm and storm none have been, none can equal to them in endurance and dash.

In a general way it will be interesting to note that the Observer sees no immediate termination to the war, though confident there can be but one end to it. The opinion is offered by it that the campaign in southeastern Europe will be one of counter victory and reverse, but in the end superior numbers and endurance will tell and the two main Central powers be securely bottled up.

Uncle Sam—"He's Plenty Warlike Enough For Me."

Roosevelt said in his first campaign speech at Detroit, and has since been ramming and jamming it down from there back to New York that if he had been president when the Lusitania was sunk he would have seized all the German ships and vessels in our ports and then talked business to Germany. Such an act would have meant war. And it from the same Theodore Roosevelt who betrayed the Progressive convention and bluffed the Republicans into nominating Hughes, and who is to be secretary of war, insists the New York Herald should Hughes be elected. A happy prospect, indeed.

We don't have much more respect for the base ball dopest than we do the political prophet. They all told us Brooklyn would "crack under the strain", while Philadelphia's nerve would hold her steady. Exactly the reverse was the case. Brooklyn played right up to the handle, while the Phillies blew and blew up farther than the balloon ever soared.

Matty says he is going to hold on to all but two or three of the Red players. Better hold on to all of them, if for no other reason than to prevent them from going to other clubs and help win championships. It was Matty, the greatest of 'em all, that was turned off from these same Reds.

The world's series will hold them away from politics until well into next week anyway.

There will be nothing lost in beautifying the approach to the Scioto bridge. A dressed-up city, like an individual, makes a good impression.

The auto that tried three times to knock a telephone pole down is right smart disfigured, but the pole still stands.

Judging by the series of mishaps, chronicled in the columns of this tireless and reliable purveyor of news, all the excitement didn't die down with the end of the Carnival.

The position of the Cincinnati Enquirer may be described as on the fence and wobbling.

With his double-barreled endorsement from the Anti-Saloon League and the German-American Alliance Cousin Myron thinks he occupies a strategic position, but does he? May be he has heard of the acrobat, not political either, who tried to ride two horses going in opposite directions.

In this base ball matter, as in the war, we are strictly neutral, except we would rather see the club that has a player from Missouri and Portsmouth each should win.

A person or two in New York will learn what the taste of a real apple is. "Our distinguished guests" went away bearing as a gift a basket of choice Grimes Golden and Jonathans.

Father Beaver Begins Work

"I certainly am glad to see you!" exclaimed Father Beaver when Policeman Billy interrupted his plans for a raft with an offer of help. "You're just the one who can help me."

"I thought so," laughed Policeman Billy. "What's up?" Father Beaver told him about how he wanted to do something wonderful and surprise Mother Beaver and about his idea for a raft. "Think I can make one?" he asked doubtfully. "Of course you can," replied Policeman Billy with enthusiasm. "It's a fine idea. But you don't need any help from me. You're such a hand with wood cutting and log rolling! You get right at it and I'll be on hand to take a ride."

Of course it pleased Father Beaver ever so much to have Policeman Billy so sure that he could make a raft. But all the same, back in the corner of his mind, he was a little doubtful. How would he manage the logs together? But he sensibly decided to cut his logs first and then, if he hadn't thought of a scheme for joining them by that time, to ask for advice. So he went to work. He picked out a fine straight sapling and began gnawing it round and round until it fell crashing through the trees. "Oh, dear!" he thought, "now everybody'll hear that and come running!" But evidently everybody was busy with their own business, for no one came to see what had made the noise.

So Father Beaver went on working and working. He cut the sapling into short strips and stacked them neatly for future use. Then before he had a chance to begin on another tree, he noticed a streak of daylight slanting across the sky. "I guess I'd better cover my work," he thought. "Mother Beaver don't see it," he thought. "But he didn't have a chance: Mother Beaver came at that very minute."

"Where in the world have you been?" she demanded. "We've had the most fun! And whatever have you been doing?" And then she asked the cut up sapling. "You poor Father Beaver!" she cried kindly, "working."

He cut the sapling into short strips and stacked them neatly for future use.

all by yourself while we were having fun! Why didn't you call me? I didn't know you were in such a rush about repairing that dam."

And then she noticed how Father Beaver had cut the tree up into short pieces.

"I never saw you do that way before," she asked in a puzzled voice, "why did you cut the pieces so short?"

Father Beaver couldn't for the life of him, think of an excuse; and he wouldn't tell about his raft, so he just pretended he was sound asleep. To-morrow—Father Beaver Hums The Easy Way tent.

Huntington Visitors

C. R. Comer and C. W. Kendle, prominent furniture manufacturers of Huntington were business visitors to Portsmouth Thursday.

Charles F. Murphy, Tammany leader, was praising New York to a group of friends at a Delmonico luncheon.

"I know a Westerner who visited New York for the first time," he said. "I met him on Fifth avenue and asked: 'Well how do you like our city?'"

"Great," he said, "New York is a great town. But I wish I'd come here before I got converted."

There is a money-making barber shop in New York that does a thriving business, and does it without the use of razors. It is a finely fitted with as perfect sanitary equipment as can be found in any of the noted 50 or 100 chair barber shops.

The place is on Fifth avenue, within a stone's throw of the Waldorf and is an exclusive shop. The bulk of its business is done between 10 a. m. and cocktail time in the afternoon, with nothing doing on Sundays.

Its customers are the young bloods of the town, mostly from the aristocracy, and they certainly make most critical and exacting customers. They drive up in their cars and are cared for with skill—and sometimes they make their chair appointments by telephone in advance.

The customers are the kiddies of the rich, and the shop is exclusively theirs for cutting curls and clipping locks—it is nestled away in the corner of a store far-famed for its children's patronage.

Young Bert Hubbard, son of the beloved Elbert Hubbard, was in New York this week. He is a big strapping young fellow and is growing into just as interesting a character as his father.

When Hubbard was lost at sea, there were those who predicted that the business built up by him would be lost on account of the absence of his magnetic personality. But it is not so. The young son took up the reins and is improving things in East Aurora right along.

New stunts are being added and he was in New York to arrange for a big new gymnasium there for the tired business man. His father and Dr. F. M. Placock of Kansas City, had planned the structure and now it is to be carried out. The only thing that seems to have been lost was the discontinuance of the publishing of The Philistine.

NEW-YORK-DAY-BY-DAY.

O-O-MENTYRE.

New York, Oct. 5—More than forty-five hundred girls are leaving Broadway this season in the choruses to cheer up the population from Portland, Maine, to Portland, Oregon. The days of "counting the ties" back to New York in the agony of the short ramp are gone with the new commercial era in the theatre.

They will come back riding in the Pullmans just as they left. Very few first-class shows are stranded anymore. The worst thing they have to deal with is the stage-door Johnny. And peculiarly the girls say that the stage-door type of male is less in evidence in Boston than in any other city in the country.

In Chicago the Johnnies worry them to death—they are that persistent. Most every show girl nowadays carries a dog along with her. Some of these girls are the sole support of families and others have shiftless husbands to support and will find them heavily in debt when they return.

But they are a happy lot. There is a spirit of fellowship among them that it is said does not exist anywhere else except under the circus.

Bacon and beans are both going up. That may mean the allies will have to negotiate another loan with us.

Dollar and half wheat sounds good to the farmer, and his good housewife makes his own bread.

We opine these are pretty busy days with Chairman John Eckhart instructing his valiant spell binders how to pipe it off on the tariff, according to the instructions he got from that secret caucus of the G. O. P. committeemen. And the farmers, with wheat $1.58 and hogs 12 cents on the hoof, won't they lend the ready ear.

We should say the Sommers, the Gliens and the Shelas are some pumpkins when it comes to domestic arts, at least that much is to be inferred from the frequent recurrence of these names among the prize winners of the Carnival.

They are talking that Ollie James is going to speak here within the month. That means every voter in fifty miles ought to be in Portsmouth on the occasion. There is only one Ollie James and it is worth traveling a hundred miles any time to hear him.

Say, it is actually norted around that Munn's Run paving is completed and the pike will be opened to traffic Saturday!

The Bulgars are taking so many lickings and coming right back that it looks as though they were quite fond of them.

Right agreeable to have the old town look herself again and go briskly on in the usual course.

Softly down the wooden glen,
Tasselled with the plummy thistle,
Steps the Pied Piper again,
Blowing on his mellow whistle.

Squirrels bark and call of quail
Mimios he, the tuneless varlet,
As he steals along the dale
Ragged in his gold and scarlet.

Close behind him as he plays,
Hand in hand there follow after
All the little summer days,
Light of foot and full of laughter.

Arms beaped high with autumn spoils,
Golden rod and purple aster,
Caught within the Piper's toils,
Fast they follow him and faster.

Till they reach the mountain side,
Where old winter keeps the portal;
There they vanish with their guide,
To be seen no more of mortal.

Only down the wooden glen,
Ravished of its plummy thistle,
Far and faint is heard again
The Echo of the Piper's whistle.

The Vital Point

A beautiful young woman interviewed a fortune teller on the usual subjects.

"Lady," said the clairvoyant, "you will visit foreign lands and the courts of kings and queens. You will conquer all rivals and marry the man of your choice. He will be tall and dark and aristocratic looking."

"And young?" interrupted the lady.

"Yes, and very rich."

"STORMY" EXECUTIVE SESSION HELD BY COUNCIL ON FLOODWALL "EXTRAS"

New Boston Annexation Is Also Given A Whirl; Triangle "Condemned"

City Solicitor Anselm Skelton explained to council that the passage of an ordinance to submit the annexation matter to a vote of the people at the coming election, was a formality and it had to go through under the law. He said that since the New Boston council had failed to enact the legislation the county commissioners would hold a meeting Thursday afternoon for the purpose of passing it over the New Boston council's head. To make it legal the city council has to pass an ordinance submitting the question to a vote.

An executive session lasting over an hour which council held at the suggestion of Mayor H. H. Kaps, shortly after convening, to take up some matters the public service and safety departments wished to present, was said to be a stormy affair. The sober countenances of the city solons as they took their seats at the opening of the regular meeting, presaged the clash that was to come. Some plain talk is said to have been indulged in by Mayor Kaps and City Engineer Harper on the one side and Floor Leader Wilson on the other. Extra allowances on the new flood wall work is said to have been one of the subjects warmly discussed and it was noticed that the legislation prepared by the solicitor appropriating $1,400 to pay for extra work done by the S. Monroe & Son Company at the Point, was not presented, as expected.

When council reconvened, Mr. Wilson announced with considerable emphasis, "Council will take no action tonight upon matters discussed during the executive session."

Free Sanitary Sewer Service Is Granted

Perhaps it was the excitement under which the members were laboring that caused one of the electric fans in the room to start revolving of its own accord and make council vote free water and free sanitary sewer service to the Wesley Hall Mission only to discover later that it could not provide the latter without building a new sewer addition, for there is no sewer directly behind the Mission building.

Mr. Vandervort had presented a verbal petition, explaining that Wesley Hall had changed from a private to a public institution and said the street committee was willing that it should have the service it needed. Rev. J. E. Di- hert, who has charge of the mission, was present and was given the privilege of addressing council. He told of the work the mission was doing in providing shelter and comfort to "down and outs," but said the place was "up against it" in the way of proper drainage, a well in the basement now being used for that purpose, sometimes overflowing and causing stenches and unsanitary conditions generally.

Mayor Kaps spoke in favor of granting the service asked for, heartily agreeing with the street committee. He said the mission was doing a good work and taking care of many persons who the city otherwise would have to provide for, in fact, was doing far more good than most people realized and expressed the hope that council could see its way clear to grant relief.

Mr. Wilson, accepting as true that the mission was a public institution and not owned by any congregation or set of men, moved that the petition be received and the request granted, which motion carried.

Later in the meeting Service Director Calvert renewed the subject. He said that while council was perfectly within its rights under the law to grant free water service to a public institution, he could not see how any sanitary sewerage relief could be given for that fund was now exhausted.

Mr. Wilson now explained that when he made his motion he was under the impression that only a sanitary sewer tap was required. He asked Engineer Harper about how much it would cost to make a sewer extension to give the required relief. Mr. Harper thought

C. E. Frowine, was demanding $3,000 cash for it. Chairman Riekey, of the street committee, declared the price too big, saying the ground was on the tax duplicate for a low figure, although it had increased in value somewhat in the last few years. Mr. Johnson, while wanting it understood that he was not opposed to the measure, advised caution and careful investigation, saying such proceedings oftentimes proved expensive affairs. The solicitor estimated it would not exceed $75 unless the city failed to exercise its option after a jury had once fixed a price in which event it would have to pay the lawyers, etc., of the defense, as well. Mr. Wilson wondered if a compromise figure could not be arranged. Council finally voted to go ahead with the condemnation proceedings.

Condemnation Proceedings To Acquire Triangle

Council authorized the solicitor to institute condemnation proceedings to acquire the triangular strip of ground at Twelfth street and Robinson avenue for park purposes. The solicitor previously reported that the owner, Mrs.

man Riekey, of the street committee that the one square alley between Eleventh and Robinson avenue east of Lawson, be improved, revived the subject of alley improvements generally. Mr. Roush wanted to know of the solicitor what conclusion he had reached regarding alley paving. Mr. Skelton assured him he had not changed any from his original opinion early in the year that alleys be paved along the same plan as streets, but said the only reason why no activity had been shown was because he believed no alleys should be paved until sewers had first been installed though he stood ready to prepare any legislation along that line that council might order. Mr. Riekey's petition was ordered filed, pending the building of a sewer in the alley referred to.

Alley Paving Is Discussed By Council

man Riekey, of the street committee that the one square alley between Eleventh and Robinson avenue east of Lawson, be improved, revived the subject of alley improvements generally. Mr. Roush wanted to know of the solicitor what conclusion he had reached regarding alley paving. Mr. Skelton assured him he had not changed any from his original opinion early in the year that alleys be paved along the same plan as streets, but said the only reason why no activity had been shown was because he believed no alleys should be paved until sewers had first been installed though he stood ready to prepare any legislation along that line that council might order. Mr. Riekey's petition was ordered filed, pending the building of a sewer in the alley referred to.

Mr. Vandervort demanded an explanation of the failure to lay water mains up Mabert Road, although legislation appropriating money for the purpose had passed last December. He said Judge Thomas had 18 houses there and was building 6 more and had no water service, although he had dedicated a street to the city. Director Calvert gave as a reason for not laying the mains that there was a sewer under construction there, some grading required and other conditions that precluded doing the work which he said had been contemplated for this season. "We simply didn't get to it," he said, adding with a smile as he took his seat, that the locality referred to it outside the corporation line.

Mr. Calvert reported that Clerk Zucker had received from the state board of health a copy of an ordinance making it compulsory for property owners to tap into sanitary sewers. He thought this ought to be taken up before any real campaign of paving alleys was started.

Council approved the report of the board of control favoring condemnation proceedings in order that a sidewalk may be laid in front of the Henry Hanes property and connect up with Armstrong Place, directing the solicitor to prepare the necessary legislation. The mayor said Hanes was alone in his stand and none of his neighbors were with him.

The schedule amounting to $148.55 was allowed. Clerk Zucker reported having served notices on property owners of the proposed improvement of Dexter avenue, Madison street, Jefferson street, Kinney street and Poplar street.

DEPUTY SHERIFF ROME ARTHUR POLICE CHIEF AT STEEL PLANT

Deputy Sheriff Rome Arthur is to be the next Chief of Police at the Whitaker-Glassner Steel company, according to an announcement made Wednesday evening. He will succeed John Mifflin, who recently left. It has been rumored for the past two days that Deputy Sheriff Arthur would be the next chief of the Steel plant police squad, but the report was not confirmed until Wednesday evening. Deputy Arthur stated that he had accepted the position and had forwarded his resignation to Sheriff F. W. Smith. The new position carries a handsome raise in salary. During his stay in the Sheriff's office Mr. Arthur made an enviable record for faithful discharge of duties that were assigned to him; going at times to the most inaccessible parts of the county in the dead of night to round up desperate men. He made a fearless officer. It is probable that Mr. Arthur will assume his new duties Monday. Sam Phillips has been selected to serve as night chief at the Steel Plant.

LOCAL COUPLE PRINCIPALS IN A SENSATIONAL DIVORCE SUIT

Relative to the sensational marital troubles of a former Portsmouth couple, now residents of Cincinnati, the Enquirer Wednesday said: "Dramatically naming Attorney M. W. Conway, veteran member of the Hamilton County Bar, as an invader of his home, Leslie Cooper, 1528 Eastern avenue, made a vigorous defense to the suit of his wife, Sophia, Portsmouth, Ohio, in Domestic Relations Court yesterday. Mrs. Cooper's suit is for alimony, and her husband, on cross-petition, seeks divorce."

Attorney Conway was not present when the charge was made. The case was being tried by his son, Hobart D. Conway, and Clifford L. Mueller, member of his firm. He appeared at the afternoon session of court, however, and denounced the statement of Cooper as a "base and wicked lie."

Cooper charged his troubles with his wife began seven years ago, when they were living at 3718 Columbia avenue, in a house owned by Attorney Conway.

Sees Man Climb Fence
"He said he returned from work as a conductor of the Pennsylvania Railway one afternoon, to see Conway walk up Tusculum avenue and climb over a high fence in the rear of his residence. On entering, he said he found the two in a room. He said he went out and obtained a gun."

"I stood at the door with the weapon," said he, "but realized my case was hopeless. I thought, 'If I kill them there is no one to see it now.' I told both of them, 'You know what you have done, and I told her she never could be a wife to me again.'"

Cooper said he afterward lived in the same house with his wife, only for the sake of their children.

"There were three little tots then—there are only two now," he said. "Two weeks later, he said, he met Conway on a car, and charged the latter left the car at the next stop."

Mrs. Cooper had charged her husband sought a divorce in order that he might marry Mrs. Jennie Cordell, 2016 Fairfield avenue, and Mrs. Cordell was called by Attorney Charles Bell, counsel for Cooper.

Both Members of Societies
She said she was separated from her husband, but never had been divorced. She admitted she was a member of several secret societies to which Cooper belonged, and said the affairs of Cooper and his wife had been discussed at meetings. Mrs. Cordell testified she had thought of suing for divorce, and had applied to Attorney Conway, who had told her that it would cost $10,000 to file a petition and $750 for advertising. If she went to dinner with him, two or three times, she alleged he offered, no fee would be required.

Attorney Conway said he never had heard of the charge made by Cooper until this suit was filed. He said when Mrs. Cooper wrote from Portsmouth, Ohio, requesting him to take the case, he did not remember her, and wrote to her asking who she was. When she told him she was Mrs. Cooper who had lived in his house, he remembered her, he said. Attorney Conway also denied he had told Mrs. Cordell no fee would be charged in an action for divorce if she went to dinner with him.

"Mrs. Cooper charged her husband had given her only $100 for the support of their two children since April, but he produced money order receipts showing he had paid her $40 a month. Judge Hoffman took the case under advisement and said he would render a decision Monday."

WILL SPEAK ON ADAMSON BILL AT G. O. P. MEETING

Hon. W. O. Jackson, member of the Ohio General Assembly, Clark county; Springfield, will deliver an address upon the Adamson eight hour bill at the "Hip Hurrah" meeting of the Seito county Republicans Friday evening. The Republican campaign in this county will be formally launched at this meeting.

Mr. Jackson was a locomotive engineer for 21 years, resigning in 1901, when he received an appointment to the position of Chief Inspector of Railroads in Ohio. This position he held for several years. His explanation of the Adamson bill, which is one of the issues of the fall election, is said to be of interest to every voter. Hon. Harry W. Miller will address the local Republicans upon topics of interest. All electors, regardless of party affiliation, are invited to attend the Friday evening meeting, which will be held at the Seito County Republican Club rooms, Gallia street.

Injunction Vacated; Suit Is Dismissed

A temporary injunction secured by Mary A. Schneider against Lena Lang, restraining her from razing her part of a double house located on Fourth street, was vacated by Judge Thomas in common pleas court Thursday. The grounds given for the vacation of the temporary restraining order, was that the defendant had taken the necessary steps to protect the property of the plaintiff.

The case was instituted several weeks ago by the plaintiff asking restraining order against the defendant, claiming that Lena Lang intended to raze her portion of the double house without regard to the material damage to the plaintiff's part. The temporary order was allowed.

The case has been dismissed. Theo. K. Funk represented the plaintiff and Alex C. Woodrow the defendant.

Patrolman Resigns

Patrolman Dudley Templeman resigned from the police force Wednesday, making the second of five to leave the department within a week.

Will Hold Banquet

In order to repay the girls who so ably helped them during their indoor fair during the Korn Karival, members of the Alpha Pi fraternity will give a banquet in their honor at the Washington hotel Friday evening. The fair was a big success and a large sum was cleared.

Luther Jaynes is in charge of all arrangements for the banquet. He has received word that W. A. Graves, of Cincinnati would be present as guest of honor and will act as toastmaster. Short talks will be made by Earl Clayton, Lester Nutter, Luther Jaynes, Edwin Eckhart and Vancil Alexander. The banquet will start at 8:30 and dancing will begin at 9:30.
